- take photographs of a landscape using a crystal ball.
- take photographs of windows/glass buildings with interesting reflections.
- reflections of people or portraits in a mirror.
- reflections of sunglasses with a portrait.
- reflections in a pond/lake/ other water.
- reflect on a time in your life.

Resources to support your work...

This work is important because it allows us to see how you approach your work, where your interests lie and skills that you have in handling materials.

It shows your teachers how committed you are to creating high-quality work and collecting your own interesting ideas and photographs.

If you do this you will then be able to develop your presentation skills, communication skills and possibly provide a starting point for your portfolio!
